- Athletes are allowed to compete no more than twice. The disciplines and categories can vary. The choreographies can vary as well.
- Solo Freestyle: this represents a new category which only takes place in German competition. Between three and eight athletes are on stage together and improvise to a song chosen by the competition manager.
- If there are less than three solos/duos/pairs/teams registered per discipline, the competition manager is able to combine them to one interdisciplinary competition.

Participation:

- capacity: 120 athletes (20 international)
- Minimum age: 11

Rules:

- The German rules are found here. In general, the SOI rules 2024 apply, but in the German version one important adaption can be found: The required elements (floor element, jump, isolation, 360 degree rotation) are not mandatory in German competitions. However, they can be shown if athletes are able to.
